COVID Measures

Please note Following the government's announcement of the end of lockdown the PCC has made the decision keep our COVID measures in place to ensure the safety of all who attend our worship services. We have resumed singing in our services, people are encouraged to do so wearing a mask. We are now also administering Holy Communion in both kinds following the Church of England's guidelines.

Heating at Egloshayle Some small temporary warm air blowers have now been placed in the church. In the next couple of weeks, a large heater will be put by the vestry. Despite this provision you are still advised to wear an extra layer of clothes to church!

Looking back, looking forward Thanks to all who put on the exhibition, served as stewards, and provided refreshments. We had a steady trickle of folk visiting the exhibition over the two days. The Looking forward display will remain in church for a little longer along with copies of the printed survey. Please do encourage friends and neighbours to complete the survey. The online copy can be found on our website or Facebook page. Completed printed surveys can be left in the designated box in church.

Grace Project This Wednesday (27th) from 1.30pm we are looking for some help to move the clothing bundles stored in the pews to a designated area in the Lady Chapel. As the Coffee, Cake and Chat is also on at the same time refreshments can be enjoyed as you work!

Egloshayle Choir – Christmas Carol Service 19th December Peter Meanwell is looking to reconvene the choir for the above date and also to encourage new members. If you would like to be involved and want to know more, please contact Peter by email -meanwell1@btinternet.com

Last Saturday (16th Oct) Confirmation Service – Truro Cathedral Sue Annetts from our parish was one of 10 candidates confirmed by the Bishop Hugh. He began his sermon by saying there are three things we all need to know. That we are loved, forgiven and what time is dinner!

Memorial Service for Val Jones Mrs Samantha Looney-Wright would like to invite friends and parishioners of her most beloved late Mother, Valerie (Val) Jones to a very special Memorial Service on what would have been her 85th birthday. This is being held at Egloshayle Church, at 2pm on Thursday November 11th.
